

PHILATELIC HISTORY

id#		item-description	price	item-note
3115, 3725	The Royal Philatelic Society, London, 1869-1969 Royal Philatelic Society (Great Britain)	This book records the history of the Royal Philatelic Society, London. It tells of the men who created the oldest philatelic society in the world and of the giants and others who through the years have been responsible for its progress and prosperity	$28.95	Some scuffing on edge of cover.. Pages and binding are firm and tight. Appears never used.
6101	Background to Philately: an anthology of papers read at the philatelic congresses of great britain [Hardcover] Leslie R. Ray & H. Rogers-Tiollstone	It is the view of the compilers that the vast amount of information and thought embodied in papers presented to the Congress have been inaccessible. This selection offered surmount the problem of inaccessibility. This book is an anthology of papers read at the Philatelic Congresses of Great Britain	$4.50	Pages and binding are firm. Dust cover intact but with a few tears and color rubbing. Pages clean but age discoloration due to poor quality of paper
4971	FIPEX Catalog 5th International Philatelic Exhibition [Paperback] International Philatelic Exhibition	Catalog listing all the features of this important show. List of exhibits, etc.... A wonderful piece of philatelic history!!!!	$35.00	Pages and binding are firm. Cover shows age discoloration. Pages clean except for minor water stain (first 50 pages) at top right corner. Some minor bumping of corners. Appears to be minimally used..
3224	The Lyttelton Papers [Hardcover] Sotheby's	The present catalog contains only the papers of a single family and at the same time covering so wide a span of time and including material of such range and quality.	$25.00	Pages and binding are firm. Appears never used. Some wear on cover. Includes "Prices Realized"

PHILATELIC HISTORY

id#		item-description	price	item-note
2444	The Kenneth R. Laurence Memorial Auction NY City January 19, 2001 [Paperback] Matthew Bennett, Inc	Auction catalog presented with meticulous descriptions of manuscripts. Includes a number of illustrations. The personal collection of Ken Laurence which was first class and epitomized the highest order of professionalism	$25.00
2330	Official Catalogue The Midwestern Philatelic Exhibition [Perfect Paperback] Garfield Perry Stamp Club	Catalogue of the 1928 Midwestern Philatelic Exhibiton. Index of all of the exhibits that were promoted during the Expo and a schedule of events. This book was the property of a well known philatelics: Dr. F.E. Locy (well known for his Naval Postmarks research) The first page of the binding is not tight but all of the pages are firm. Pages clean without defect. Cover with Dr. Locy's hand cancel & Stamp Club hand cancel.	$45.00
2280	The Chatham Square Post Office [Pamphlet] American Philatelic Society, 1941	An account of the private postoffice and letter carrier service operated from Chatham Square in old New York	$25.00	Pages clean. Some age discoloration on spine of cover. Pages and binding are firm and tight.
1034	From the winged heels of Mercury: The story of the evolution of the stamp from antiquity to modern times Seron, Zaven M	The story of the evolution of the stam from antiquity to modern times	$9.95	Pages and binding are firm and tight. Never used. Pages and cover clean without defect. Some minor "Foxing" at top edge of pages.

PHILATELIC HISTORY

id#		item-description	price	item-note
522	WIPA 1965 Catalog [Hardcover-spiral] International Postage Stamp Exhibition 1965	The International Philatelic Exhibition of 1965 took place in Vienna, Austria and a set of catalogs printed in softbound edition were produced which illustrated the various stamp exhibits by world wide philatelists that were shown at the show.	$40.00	Pages and binding are firm and tight. Paperback catalogs are privately bound w/ owners name printed on cover and also handstamped on front piece. Appears with minimal usage. Good reference for the collector of philatelic literature